

Milton's Bar

It's 2050, the twenty-fifth anniversary of artist Milton Faver's breakthrough. Tragically, Milton passed away last year at eighty-two years old. We are presenting his bar, a place where Milton made art, friends, and the occasional enemy. We believe this is how he would like to be remembered.

January 2023, Hayden Pedigo, Hills Snyder, Bryan Wheeler, and Jeff Wheeler met up for The $#%& Show, a Lubbock tradition for close to a decade. Invited by curators Christina Rees and Hannah Dean, the four artists had twenty-four hours to come up with materials and respond to this year's prompt, "The year 2050."

We hope you enjoy Milton's Bar.
